Interested in Being a Contributing Writer?

ASPET's Pharmaco Corner blog and award-winning flagship magazine The Pharmacologist seek contributing writers on a rolling basis.

Discussing Science. Discovering Cures.

Pharmaco Corner is a dedicated space where pharmacology experts can discuss issues that affect them professionally and personally. The blog connects science and society through various pharmacology disciplines. Send your pitches to pharmacocorner@aspet.org.

The Pharmacologist

The Pharmacologist wants writers interested in contributing human interest and science stories focused on pharmacology. Contact us at thepharmacologist@aspet.org. Please include links to writing samples.
